

SOUTHERN WISCONSIN BUCKSKIN ASSOCIATION

Charter of the American Buckskin Registry Association

2016 SPONSORSHIP FORM

The Southern Wisconsin Buckskin Association Inc, known as SWBA, is a non-profit charter club of the American Buckskin Registry Association. ABRA is the oldest active Buckskin horse registry in existence which is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to collect, record and preserve the pedigrees of Buckskin, Dun, Red Dun and Grulla horses and ponies.

SWBA is an organization that provides an avenue for its members to compete in Wisconsin, offering a full slate of ABRA approved classes for open, youth and amateur exhibitors providing an opportunity for ABRA registered horses to compete toward national points and awards. Our shows also offer a variety of All Breed Open & Tiny Tot Open classes for our up and coming youth exhibitors. SWBA is devoted to providing a friendly horse show environment for the entire family, from first time exhibitors to the experienced showman.
